And Gad came to David and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord, in the threshing-floor of Araunah. And Araunah said unto David, Let my Lord the King take and offer up what seemeth good unto him; behold here are the oxen for burnt-sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen, for wood. All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king: and Araunah said unto the king, the Lord thy God accept thee. And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee, at a price; neither will I offer burnt-offerings, unto the Lord my God, of that which doth cost me nothing.—2 Sam. xxiv. 18.

¶ Then, the offerings being gathered, and laid upon the Stone, in a decent vessel, the Bishop says:

Blessed be Thou, Lord God of Israel our Father, forever and ever, for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine. And what are we, and what are thy people that we should be able to offer so willingly, after this sort? for all things come of Thee, and of thine own have we given Thee. Amen.

Blessed be thy name, oh Lord, that Thou hast put into the heart of thy servants, to build a house unto Thee. Accept, we pray Thee, this service at our hands, and prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, prosper Thou our handiwork. Amen.

Blessed be thy Name for the Holy Gospel, for thy Church and Ministry, for the means of grace and for the hope of life eternal. Show thy servants thy work, and their children thy glory. Amen.

Bless oh Lord all who help this pious work, by offerings, by prayers, or by their labours and good-will. Amen.

Guard and defend the workmen, and keep them from harm and accident. Amen.

Keep them also from the Evil One, and from all words and doings that may profane this place, while they labour upon it. Amen.

Make us all here present to be living temples of the Spirit, holy and acceptable unto Thee. Amen.

May peace be within the walls of all Christian Churches, and prosperity in all the assemblies of thy saints upon earth. Amen.

Gather in the outcasts, save the lost, convert the nations, and make all thy people to be one, in the one fold of thy Church, under Jesus the great Shepherd of the sheep. Amen.

And finally, bring us into thy presence to glorify thee forever, in the Temple not made with hands, eternal in the heavens; all which we beg, through Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour, unto whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and forever. Amen.

¶ Then may be sung Gloria in Excelsis.

¶ After which, the Bishop adding other Collects, as may seem proper, shall say this blessing,

The God of Peace, who brought again from the dead, etc.

¶ Any Presbyter may use this Office in the absence of the Bishop; or any Deacon having special license from the Bishop himself.

Our Diocesan Fellowship

Mr. and Mrs. Willis and family were first enrolled in our parish register in 1865; and from that time until the present, the family have ever been closely connected with the activities of Epiphany Parish. Miss Lilly Willis and Mrs. Chas. C. Rice are daughters of Joseph and Elizabeth Willis; as were the late Mrs. Ed. C. (Emily) Hahn and Miss Anna Willis.

Mr. Joseph Willis was for many years Sr. Warden of Epiphany Church Corporation.

Our beautiful new pulpit is a memorial to the late Elias S. Nablo and son, Chester; and is presented by the widow and mother, Mrs. Elias S. Nablo of 752 Van Rensselaer Ave., this city. Mr. Nablo became an active member of Epiphany directly after coming to our city from Canada. His family were brought up in the Sunday School and confirmed in the Church. Chester Nablo was killed in 1920 when getting off a street car on his return home from high school. Mr. Elias S. Nablo was for many years a member of Epiphany Church Vestry. Mr. Nablo is survived by his widow and two sons, Earle and Lawrence, all of this city.

All of our memorials were purchased from and placed by Gray and Trigg of our city. They were made by the Vermont Marble Co.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

It is with much regret that we announce the resignation of Mrs. Elsie L. Wade as director of the C. P. C. of the diocese. Her work during the past two or three years has been done with devotion and thoroughness and the results have proved its excellence. Mrs. Wade is resigning reluctantly, because of home responsibilities, and not because of loss of enthusiasm for the work. We appreciate what she has done and know that she was right in asking to be relieved. Bishop Ferris is searching the diocese for a successor and we hope shortly to announce an appointment.

We are sorry to learn that not only in Western New York but throughout the Church there was a falling off in the number of magazines being mailed regularly during the past year. It is a matter of regret when we do not increase along all right lines but to backslide is lamentable! Think of the long list of 'Wants' unmet, in Miss Thomas's office, and then think of some of the former donors dropping out! We do not believe there are fewer subscribers among will enable the school to add approximately 40 additional pupils to its enrollment. This will improve De Veaux materially and assist Niagara Falls in meeting its ever increasing demands for educational facilities.

EPIPHANY CHURCH, NIAGARA FALLS

We the members of Epiphany greatly appreciate the beautiful white marble memorials which have been placed in our Church; and which were dedicated by the Rt. Rev. Cameron J. Davis, D. D., on Palm Sunday evening, in connection with the Confirmation Service. We trust that these memorials will not only beautify the Church and its services but that they will tend to make each service more uplifting and helpful to all who partake therein.

The Altar is a memorial to Mrs. Marrietta Wallace and her son, Frederick Wallace, given by the late Mrs. Frederick Wallace. Mrs. Marrietta Wallace was one of the pioneers of Epiphany who lived for many years at 1615 Main Street; later the home of her son, the late Hon. William C. Wallace.

When plans were being discussed for erecting an Episcopal Church in what was then called Niagara City, Mrs. Wallace gave one of the lots on which the present Church now stands; while the other lot was given by John W. and Daniel H. Ford. John W. Ford's son, Edward L., died last summer in Youngstown, Ohio; and a grandson and namesake, John W. Ford, is now one of Youngstown's most prominent lawyers and business men.

Mrs. Marrietta Wallace for many years constituted the charity organization of what is now called the North End of our city; and the present rector of Epiphany has often been told of her generous work in assisting those in need.

Mr. Frederick Wallace, baptized in Epiphany Church, May 20, 1866, was for many years in business in our city.

Mrs. Frederick Wallace, whose generosity and love made possible our memorial altar, was born and lived her entire life at 34 E. Niagara Street; she was a member of the first Presbyterian Church.

One son, Luke Wallace, of Canandaigua, still survives. Two grandchildren live in this city, Mrs. George Orr and William C. Wallace, Jr.

The splendid, artistic altar rail is a memorial to Joseph and Elizabeth Willis, and is presented by their children.
